

The Director
Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

27 February 1979

Dear George,

STAT I understand that in the best traditions of the service you made a special effort to accommodate the request I had received from former Ambassador Ball. I thank you for it, and especially thank [redacted] for opening the office on a Sunday to accommodate our friends. I trust she got home before getting caught in the "Big Blizzard."

Yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Stansfield Turner".

STANSFIELD TURNER

STAT [redacted]
Information and Privacy Staff
Room 2E 50
CIA Hdqrs. Bldg.